The Deciding Factor

Your selection of a bank is naturally influenced by its reputation for safety and conservatism, by the standing which it enjoys in the community.

But, when these qualifications are met, the courteous and friendly helpfulness of its service becomes the deciding factor.

In The Farmers National Bank of Appomattox you find recognized safety and conservatism in policy and practice--and you also find that atmosphere of cordial welcome, and that satisfying personal attention which make your contact with the bank most truly satisfying.

MAKING THEM AMERICANS

How few of us realize the importance of making over the foreigner — of implanting American ideals, ideas and common sense in place of socialistic and maybe anarchistic theories. It means a lot to every American citizen. This work and many other interesting activities of the Department of Labor are discussed in the twelfth issue of the series of beautifully illustrated booklets on Our Government which we have been distributing to representative citizens of this community.

If by any chance you have failed to receive regularly your copies of this series that has been so favorably commented upon, visit us today and from the limited supply on hand we will gladly complete your set.

Many friends of the paper have ordered it sent for 1923 to distant relatives as a Xmas gift. If you have a son or daughter away from home have the county paper sent to them. It's like a letter from home.

The Tobacco Association handled more than three-quarters of a million pounds of tobacco at its two warehouses here before Xmas. We cannot say that the farmers are all satisfied. The factories are all full and the warehouses have to clean up before they can receive any more, and therefore the association will begin to receive the weed again on the 9th instant. If the farmers would throw all scrap and common lugs in the fertilizer pile it would undoubtedly increase the price on all other gradee. A great quantity of tobacco was graded at $2.40, no man can make it at that price. The association in the three states has handled 118,000,000 pounds. There are no changes announced at the local warehouses Here in the force, although some dissatisfaction exists.

Married

DAVIS-CALDWELL

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Haycock, 1606 Longfellow Street, at noon on Christmas day when Miss Clara Campbell Caldwell, of Appomattox, Va., was married to Mr. Harry P. Davis, of Pemberton, W. Va. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Gove G. Johnson, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church. The bride's only attendant was her little niece, Miss Elizabeth Browning, of Richmond, Va. The best man was the groom's brother, Mr Shirley Davis, of Mt. Hope, W. Va. To the strains of Lohengrin the little flower girl in a dainty frock of peach bloom taffeta led the bridal party under a bower of ivy, mistletoe and Christmas bells. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown veldyne and fur, with a hat of cloth of gold, trimmed in spanish gold lace and fur. Her corsage bouguet was of butterfly roses and lillies of the valley. She was given away by her sister, Mrs. R. B Haycock, who wore a dress of periwinkle crepe, with a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. Charles A. Zanner played the wedding march. Out of town wedding guests were Mrs. Daniel W. Browning, of Richmond, Va, Mrs Wilbur Davis, of Mt. Hope, W. Va; and Miss Walton, of Washington. After their honeymoon in Southern Virginia the couple will reside in Pemberton, W. Va., where the groom is the secretary of the Pemberton Fuel Company.

Miss Caldwell is the lovely and accomplished daughter of the late Alexander Caldwell, of this county. She has won for herself many friends not only here and during her college life, but also in Richmond, Washington and Florida where she has spent her winters since her father's death. Mr. Davis is also a native of this county. Our best wishes accompany this young couple to their new home in Pemberton.

HAYDEN—HARVEY

At the Methodist parsonage on Saturday morning at nine o'clock, a very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized, when Miss Eva Mazie Harvey became the bride of Mr. William Edward Hayden, of Danville, Va, Rev. W. G Bates officiating.

Miss Harvey who is the charming daughter of Mr and Mrs. T J. Harvey, of Appomattox, was attired in a lovely suit of Brown velour with beaver fur trimmings and accessories to match. Mr. Hayden who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hayden, of Danville, holds a responsible position with the Edmunds Plumbing Co, of that city. John Harvey, brother of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Coleman were the only ones who accompanied the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Hayden will be at home after Jan. 1st, 633 Jefferson St, Danville, Va.

COLE—DAUGHTRY

Oscar C. Cole of this county, and Miss Pearl Daughtry of N. C., were married Sunday, Dec. 24th, at Evergreen, by Rev. Ragland.

The groom is an employee of the Appomattox Motor Co., well known and highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends here. His bride has been employed as millener at Virginia's Bonnet Shop here, and is a handsome young lady of pleasing personality and during her sojourn here has made a host of friends who join with us in extending the happy pair a long life of happiness.

Vera

Christmas has "Done come an' gone", as the old colored man said when he broke his bottle of "Christmas cheer.

Christmas passed off pleasantly in this neighborhood and we have heard of no drunks tragedies or accidents. Fireworks were in evidence at many homes and hunting was the pastime of the hour.

Aubrey Carter killed a wild turkey on Christmas day; but sad to relate the turkey lodged in a high tree and could not be dislocated.

Parties galore were the order of the day.

A party at Mr. John Childer's Christmas night, a dance at Alonzo Martin's the night of the 26th and a party at Mr. Will Childer's on the 28th.

Miss Marcia and Mr Perry Childers of Lynchburg, Miss Addie Childers, who teaching near Spout Spring, Melvin and Lewis Childers of Roanoke, were all at home with their parents, Mr and Mrs. John Childers, during the holidays.

Mr. Harry Kinney, of Philadelphia, Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Foster of Rosemary N. C, Mr and Mrs. R. A. Steffins of Norfolk, Miss Lucy Menefee of Loazo, and Mr. T. K. Menefee of Lynchburg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs H. W. Kinney during the holidays.

Mr. Robert Carner, of the University of Virginia, was also a guest of the Kinneys and visited his mother, Mrs. Daisey Bell.

Miss Otys Childers, who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Childers, during the holidays had as her guests Misses Elizabeth Mays and Christine McCarthy of Lynchburg, and Miss Geneva Horseley of Rustburg Mr. "Billy" McCarthy of Lynchburg, was also a guest of the Childers.

Mr. Dewey Taylor of Lynchburg, has returned home after a visit to Mr. R. W. Abbitt

Miss Morgan of Anderson ville, spent Christmas with her sister, Mrs. J K. Megginson.

Mrs. J. R. Morgan has been visiting her daughter, Mrs J K. Megginson.

Mrs. Cornelia Anderson left Thursday for Pulaski, to be with her daughter, Mrs. Eliza Crabtree, who is very ill.

Mr and Mrs. Homer Reynolds of Lynchburg, spent the holidays with homefolks.

Miss May Robertson of Lynchburg, visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson during the holidays.

The teachers of the Liberty Chapel and Vera schools left for the holidays.

Mr. Will Childers is sporting a new Ford those days and has decided to use it as a vehicle to hunt "possums".

Forest View

The Xmas holidays passed off quietly. The young people had quite a nice, time each one taking it in turn to entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Berkley Nash spent the holidays with the formers parent Mr. T. J. Nash

Mr. and Mrs. L. Laughlin and baby of Lynchburg spent the holidays with the latters parents, Mr and Mrs. T H Ford.

Mr. and Mrs Edward Harris of Charlotte, spent a few days during Xmas with the latters parents, Mr. and Mrs Z M Jones

Mrs. Robert Marshall better known as "Grandma Fet" is so enthused over the many nice gifts from children grand and great-grand children and friends also, she feels like proclaiming as the rich man in the Bible, "That she has not room to store her goods. Hurrah for this amiable lady, may she live to see many more Xmases like this.

Mr. Wallace Woodson is visiting his brother, Ernest, near Cape Charles, Va.

Messrs. David Nash and John Shackleford of Lynchburg motored to the home of Mr. R. W. Martin and spent a few of the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J A Martin spent a few days last week with the latters parents Mr. and Mrs. A S Wooldridge.

John Marshall of Lynchburg, Miss Mary Dug Marshall of near Pamplin, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Overton and children of Brookneal, Mr Henry White of Richmond, spent the holidays at the home of N D Marshall

Mr. William Marshall and brother, David, of W. Va, were visitors in this neighborhood last week.

Miss Mattie Farrar of Evergreen, visited in the home of Mr and Mrs. Floyd Puckett last week

Misses Laura and Mattie Nash Everette Ferguson and Elisha Jones spent the week-end in the home of Mr. Cecil Nash.

Mr. T O. Elder has moved near Brookneal.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Nash and children spent last Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. T H Inge.

Sunday School at Petty's Fork school house closed last Sunday. On Xmas eve the children had a little program, afterward they were presented with a bag of candy and candy handed around to older pupils.

Our public school teacher, Miss Eva Harvey changed her name Xmas. I guess we will have another sent in to take charge to-day.

Wishing the Editor and Printer a happy New Year.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative power of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
